About Me

I have a knowledge about HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. And I use PHP as back end of my projects I know how to manipulate data in database using PHP I create some websites that have a Create, Read, Update and Delete (CRUD). I am still studying the JavaScript for solid foundation and also this will help me to create more dynamic and interactive websites. Furthermore I know how to create a responsive website using pure CSS.

Carreer Objective

To seek more opportunities and suitable job for my career that will make me gain new experience that will lead me to become a new individual for doing job related task effectively. Further more I want to meet professional persons that will guide me in my journey in this industry.
